

NATIVE
ELEMENTS
ART FESTIVAL + MARKET

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Artwork at the Native Elements Art Market:
 - Must be handmade by the registered artist in the last two (2) years.
 - Must follow the guidelines for its medium.
 - Must be the sole property of the registered artist.
 - May not include any part of an endangered species.
 - All two-dimensional art must be appropriately framed and ready to hang.
 - No wet canvases will be accepted.
 - Must be finished.
 - Must be for sale.
2. Artists must be at their booth at all times. Others may assist but may not represent artists. Volunteers are available to relieve artists for short breaks. The breaks must take no longer than 15 minutes; after 15 minutes the volunteer will leave the booth to relieve other artists. Volunteers are not allowed to sell artwork. Volunteers will circulate throughout the day to offer their assistance.
3. A Hospitality Room will be available to the artists on Saturday and Sunday.
4. Please be respectful of other artists and their booth space. Artists must keep their art within the confines of their purchased booth space. Excessive noise is not allowed.
5. Artists who register for the show but fail to set up their booth by Friday at 5 p.m. will not be invited back for two (2) years.
6. It is each artist's responsibility to comply with all federal and state laws regarding migratory birds and endangered species.
7. Books or videos of cultural, historical or educational content produced or pertaining to the artist, as well as magazines or artists' portfolios, may be displayed and/or disseminated but not for sale.
8. Giclée prints and note cards will be allowed for sale, provided giclée prints are SIGNED and NUMBERED in a limited edition and must be clearly labeled. Note cards MUST depict original artwork of the registered artist.
9. Items not allowed for sale in booths include the following:
 - a. Commercially produced t-shirts, caps, mugs, mouse pads and non-handmade items.
 - b. Any medium other than those specifically accepted into the Native Elements Art Market.
10. Native Elements Art Market officials will visit artist booths to ensure the market's rules and regulations are observed. Native Elements Art Market reserves the right to prohibit an artist from participating in the market based on the artist's failure to comply with the market's rules, regulations and guidelines.
